

I am completely opposed to the rule change as it will further consolidate the control of the media among the fewer and the powerful. Any sense of the media serving the purposes of the average American citizen will be lost! Please listen to the voices of the citizens and not the few and the powerful. I urge you to retain the present ownership rules.

Pete Lovejoy